

Fair Market Value Capital Partners hires investment exec

Arran Brown

06/01/2021

Fair Market Value Capital Partners has hired Yasin Alimam as an investment executive.

Alimam brings with him several years of experience in infrastructure principal investing having most recently been an investor with Dalmore Capital, where he has worked since 2016.

At Dalmore he was involved in the take private of the John Laing Infrastructure Fund, investment in Anglian Water, the Thames Tideway Tunnel and the UK M25 operating company.

Fair Market Value Capital is an investment firm which was set up in 2020 by Frederic Michel-Verdier, formerly of IFM Investors, to invest in the energy and infrastructure sectors.

Last year (2020), Ruwantha Vidanaarachchi was named partner.

The firm expects to make further additions to its team as it continues to grow in 2021.

Thank you for printing this article from IJGlobal.

As the leading online publication serving the infrastructure investment market, IJGlobal is read daily by decision-makers within investment banks, international law firms, advisory firms, institutional investors and governments.

If you have been given this article by a subscriber, you can contact us through www.ijglobal.com/sign-up, or call our London office on +44 (0)20 7779 8870 to discuss our subscription options.